Michael G. Yazzie-King Scholarship

- Established in 2017 by Ela Yazzie-King and the late John E. King, Jr., the scholarship honors the memory of their son, Michael G. Yazzie-King, who passed away unexpectedly in 2016.
- Michael was a son, a brother, a father of two young sons, and a proud member of the Navajo Nation. He was a Marine, a welder and a mechanic. Like his father, Michael was a motorcycle enthusiast.
- Men on both sides of Michael's family served in the military. His maternal grandfather, Arthur Shorthair, was in the Army during World War II, and his father and paternal grandfather both served in the Air Force.
- Michael was attracted to the Marine Corps because it offered a chance to test his own limits. Michael served as a corporal in the 1st Battalion, 4th Marines from 2004 to 2008 and was deployed twice to the Iraq-Syrian border.
- The Michael G. Yazzie-King Scholarship, administered by Eve's Fund for Native American Health Initiatives, is available to Navajo youth who, like Michael, desire to pursue vocational training.
- The Yazzie-King Family is grateful to family, friends and organizations for all of their generous past support of this scholarship and for their kindness following the passing of John.

John Edward King, Jr.
Capt., U.S. Air Force
Oct. 19, 1945 - July 6, 2020

Go forth in peace.
Be still within yourself,
And know that the trail is beautiful.
May the Winds be gentle upon your face,
And your direction be straight and true
as the Flight of the Eagle.
Walk in Beauty and Harmony with God and all people.

- Navajo Blessing
