Navajo United Way and Eve's Fund for Native American Health Initiatives are collaborating to offer a free "Train the Trainer" opportunity: ThinkFIrst Navajo Injury Prevention Program

ThinkFirst Navajo, a 20-year old, award-winning injury prevention education program, is designed to empower children (Grades 1-12) to make informed, safe choices to prevent life-altering injuries and deaths. By combining culturally sensitive methods with impactful education, ThinkFirst Navajo teaches youth to "Use Your Mind to Protect Your Body."

FREE

Join Us:
Date: March 1, 2025
Location: Fire Rock Navajo Casino, Church, NM
Address: 249 U.S. Rte 66, Church NM 87311
Time: 9:00-3:30
Lunch Provided

Who Should Attend: Health educators Teachers & administrators, Coaches & counselors, Nurses & healthcare workers, Traffic and law enforcement personnel, Community-based leaders, and anyone else involved in health promotion and injury prevention programs.

What You'll Learn: How to deliver ThinkFirst Navajo's injury prevention curriculum, *Strategies for educating youth and families about safety, *Tools and resources for effective community advocacy

Once trained, you will have the opportunity to join our team and integrate the ThinkFirst curriculum into your programs, helping to educate and empower youth.

To Register: Use the QR Code or Contact Helen Pino, ThinkFirst Navajo Training Coordinator, at helenpino@evecrowellsfund.org or call (505) 301-4810.

We honor the teachings of hózhó (harmony) and k'é (kinship) by fostering a safe and supportive environment for our youth. Together, we can ensure that our future generations remain strong, capable, and injury-free.

For more information on ThinkFirst National go to: ThinkFirst.org

Sponsoring Partners: